Annual Saint Paul Public Library Book Sale

Saint Paul Public Library will hold its annual book sale at Central Library, 90 West Fourth Street in downtown Saint Paul, on Friday, October 6 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Saturday, October 7 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

In addition to gently-used books, CDs and movies for adults, teens and children, the sale will include hundreds of donated new books and hard-to-find record albums, autographed books and collectible books.

Over 20 volunteers work to make the book sale a success. Last year's event raised $3000 to purchase new books, movies and music for the Saint Paul Public Library system. "This year's sale will be even larger than last year's. We have a really big selection of donated new books for kids and adults, too," said Paul Gertsen, Saint Paul Public Library's book sale coordinator.
