C-SPAN 's Book TV Bus will celebrate the Saint Paul Public Library's 125th anniversary at Rondo

C-SPAN's Book TV Bus will be celebrating Saint Paul Public Library's 125th anniversary at the Rondo Community Outreach library Wed. July 18 from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Paul D. Nelson, author of "Fredrick L. McGhee: A Life on the Color Line" will be visiting C-SPAN's Book TV Bus from 2 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Visitors can tour the state-of-the-art studio set, see an interactive demonstration about Book TV programming and learn how a television show is produced. The Bus is open to the public and visitors will have the opportunity to tape a video question for possible use on an upcoming Book TV program: In Depth.

The Book TV Bus, hosted by Comcast Cable in the Minneapolis/St. Paul area, is traveling the country, stopping at local libraries, bookstores, and book festivals along the way.
